4. Set intentions with your child for the school year ahead.

5. Practice, practice, practice your reading during the summer.

6. Include a note with your child's snack or lunch.

Tips for the first day of school

Whether your child is just beginning kindergarten or starting a new grade as a returning student, there's lots to be done to prepare for the year ahead, including checking in about their fears, anxieties, and concerns.

As summer winds down, it's natural for kids to experience nervousness — after all, your child is entering a structured group setting after months away. Some children will accept the change with joy, while others may need a bit more hand-holding to acclimate.

1

Visit the school or classroom before the first day.

2

Read books about starting school.

3

Talk to your child about his/her feelings, school, teachers, and new activities.

Global Academy International (Kindergarten Department)

Global Academy International helps students adapt to the first day of school through many hands-on activities . On the other hand, helps the child to feel safe and happy.

Recent educational reforms have led to two fundamental changes in kindergarten classrooms.

There has been a surge in play-based learning. Play, now shown to be beneficial both for academic skills and for socio-personal development, to approach for teaching and learning.

Play-based learning is rooted in history across traditions of early primary education such as Montessori, Reggio Emilia, etc...

Things to pack in your child's back- bag
