The Goal of The Activity
The Impact of The Activity on Students	On [November 21,2024], the students of grades 5 and 6 had the opportunity to visit Snowdune, a unique destination known for its exciting snow-themed activities and thrilling slides. This trip was designed to combine fun with an engaging outdoor experience, offering students a chance to explore and enjoy a different environment. Activities and Highlights: 1. Snow Slides: The highlight of the trip was the massive snow slide, which instantly became a favorite among the students. The thrill of sliding down the icy slope brought laughter and excitement to everyone. Many students mentioned it was their first time experiencing such an activity, making it even more special.

	2. Snow Play: Snowdune provided a safe and controlled environment where students could interact with snow. They built snowmen, participated in friendly snowball fights, and explored the texture and feel of snow. This was a unique experience, especially for students who had never seen snow before. 3. Team Activities: To enhance collaboration and team spirit, students were divided into groups for various snow-related games. These activities not only added to the fun but also helped develop their social and problem-solving skills. Student Reactions: The students thoroughly enjoyed the trip. Their excitement was evident in their continuous chatter, wide smiles, and eagerness to try every activity. Many shared how the trip was the best part of their school year so far. Some described the snow slide as “the most fun they’ve ever had,” while others appreciated the chance to play in the snow with their friends
Feedback	The Snowdune trip was a resounding success, leaving the students with lasting memories of fun, adventure, and camaraderie. It served as a wonderful break from the usual school routine and provided a unique opportunity to engage with a snowy environment. Such experiences not only bring joy but also enrich the students’ overall learning journey. Recommendations: Given the success of this trip, it is highly recommended to organize similar activities in the future to continue providing students with diverse and engaging experiences
